

Bethesda Big Train 20th Season Celebration

June 9, 2018

Getting Ready to Pitch: Former Members of Congress Mike Barnes and Connie Morella joined Prince George's County Executive Rushern Baker and United States Senator Chris VanHollen.

Congressional Delegation Working in Unison: United States Senator Chris VanHollen joins former Members of Congress Connie Morella and Mike Barnes

Big Train Founder Bruce Adams presents Carol Trawick with an artistic print of Povich Field by Joseph Craig English in appreciation of ten years of support of Big Train's Nonprofits of the Night by the Trawick Foundation. Cara Lesser of the night's Nonprofit of the Night KID Museum looks on as grandson George is preparing for his first pitch.

Hank Thomas explains the greatness of his grandfather Walter "Big Train" Johnson in 30 seconds (Johnson started 666 major league games and completed 531 of them).

Former Washington Post sports editor George Solomon awaits his turn to explain the magic of Shirley Povich.

Montgomery County Councilmember Hans Riemer presented the Big Train with a County Council proclamation celebrating the twentieth season of Big Train baseball at Shirley Povich Field.

20th Season of Big Train Celebration Capped Off with 2017 Championship Trophy Presentation presented by Cal Ripken Baseball League
Comissioner Jason Woodward to returning Big Train players Cam Vassar (James Madison) and Fox Semones (James Madison)

Park & Planning Commission Chair Casey Anderson joins the celebration with some of the members of the Parks staff responsible for maintaining Povich Field.

Big Train Wins Game 4-1 over Rockville Express